About this Insurance

This is an important document. You should read it carefully before making a decision to purchase this insurance.

It will help You to:

- decide whether this insurance will meet Your needs; and
- compare it with other products You may be considering.

Please note that any recommendation or opinion in this document is of a general nature only and does not take into account Your objectives, financial situation or needs. You need to decide if this insurance is right for You and You should read all of the documents that make up the policy to ensure You have the cover You need.

Preparation Date: 01/08/2015.

Summary of available covers

You can choose from the following two covers:

Cover Type	Description of cover provided
Comprehensive Cover	Section A. Loss of or Damage to Your Vehicle; and Section B. Third Party Property Damage Cover – Cover for Your legal liability for loss or Damage to another person's property.
Third Party Property Damage	Section B Only – Cover for Your legal liability for loss or Damage to another person's property.

This is a high level summary only. For information on what is covered and what is not covered and for any limits and Excesses that apply, please read this PDS, Your Schedule and any other documents making up Your Policy.

With each cover option selected, a range of benefits are included. For details of these benefits please refer to the "Benefits of cover available" table.

Some words have special meanings

Certain words used in the Policy have special meanings. The Definitions section of this document contains such terms. In some cases, certain words may be given a special meaning in a particular section of the Policy when used or in the other documents making up the Policy.

Headings are provided for reference only and do not form part of the Policy for interpretation purposes.

How We calculate Your premium

The amount of Your premium is determined by taking a number of different matters into account. You can seek a quote at any time.

It is important for You to know that the premium varies depending on the information We receive from You about the risk to be covered by Us. Based on Our experience and expertise as an insurer, We decide what factors increase Our risk and how they should impact on the premium.

The base premium We charge varies according to a number of factors including Your risk profile. Your risk profile is based on a combination of factors that assist in determining the likelihood of a claim occurring in the Period of Insurance and the amount that the claim is likely to cost Us. The factors that make up Your risk profile include Your relevant driving history and driving experience, relevant claims and incident/Accident history. Other factors are then taken into account such as where the Vehicle is located, the type of Vehicle being insured and its condition, any accessories and modifications, the amount of cover required and excesses selected and relevant insurance, criminal and bankruptcy history.

Factors that increase the risk to Us may result in a higher base premium whilst factors that decrease Allianz risk may result in a lower base premium.

Your premium also includes amounts that take into account Our obligation to pay any relevant compulsory Government charges, taxes or levies (e.g. Stamp Duty, GST, Emergency and Fire Services Levy) in relation to Your Policy. These amounts will be set out separately on Your Schedule of insurance as part of the total premium payable.

In cases where We are required to pay an estimated amount (e.g. for Fire Services Levies) based on criteria set by the Government, We allocate to the policy Our estimate of the amount We will be required to pay. We may over or under recover in any particular year but We will not adjust Your premium because of this. You can ask Us for more details if You wish.

When You apply for this insurance, You will be advised of the total premium amount payable, when it needs to be paid and how it can be paid. This amount will be set out in the Schedule, which will be sent to You after the entry into the Policy. If You fail to pay We may reduce any claim payment by the amount of premium owing and/or cancel the Policy.

Our contract with You

Where We agree to enter into a policy with You it is a contract of insurance between Us and You (see the definition of “You” for details of who is covered by this term). The policy consists of:

- this document which sets out the standard terms of Your cover and its limitations;
- Your current Schedule issued by Us. The Schedule is a separate document, which shows the insurance details relevant to You. It may include additional terms, conditions and exclusions relevant to You that amend the standard terms of this document. Only those sections shown as covered in Your Schedule are insured; and
- any other change to the terms of the policy otherwise advised by Us in writing (such as an endorsement or Supplementary PDS). These written changes may vary or modify the above documents.

These are all important documents and should be carefully read together and kept in a safe place for future reference.

We reserve the right to change the terms of the policy where permitted to do so by law.

Any new or replacement Schedule We may send You, detailing changes to Your insurance or the Period of Insurance, will become the current Schedule, which You should carefully read and retain.

Your obligation to comply with the Policy terms and conditions

You are required to comply with the terms and conditions of the Policy. Please remember that if You do not comply with any term or condition, We may (to the extent permitted by law) decline or reduce any claim payment and/or cancel Your Policy.

If more than one person is insured under the Policy, a failure or wrongful action by one of those persons may adversely affect the rights of any other person insured under the Policy.

Cooling Off Period

You can exercise Your cooling off rights and cancel the policy within 14 days of the date You purchased the policy and receive a refund of the premium paid, provided You have not exercised any right or power under the policy (e.g. made any claim) and these rights and powers have not ended.

We may deduct any reasonable administrative and transaction costs incurred by Us that are reasonably related to the acquisition and termination of the policy and any Government taxes or duties We cannot recover, from Your refund amount.

After the cooling off period has ended, You still have cancellation rights, however We may deduct a pro rata proportion of the premium for time on risk, plus any reasonable administrative costs and any Government taxes or duties We cannot recover. See “Cancellation rights under Your Policy” below.

Cancellation rights under Your Policy

How You may cancel this Policy

You may cancel this Policy at any time by telling Us in writing that You want to cancel it. You can do this by giving the notice to Your broker or Us.

Where there is more than one contracting insured We will only cancel the Policy when a written agreement to cancel the Policy is received from all contracting insured’s named as the insured or from a person authorised to act as agent of all such persons.

How We may cancel this Policy

- a. We have the right to cancel the policy where permitted by and in accordance with law. For example, We may cancel:
 - if You failed to comply with Your Duty of Disclosure; or
 - where You have made a misrepresentation to Us during negotiations prior to the issue of the policy; or
 - where You have failed to comply with a provision of the policy, including the term relating to payment of premium; or
 - where You have made a fraudulent claim under the policy or under some other contract of insurance that provides cover during the same period of time that the policy covers You, and
 - We may do so by giving You three days notice in writing of the date from which the policy will be cancelled. The notification may be delivered personally or posted to You at the address last notified to Us.
- b. Subject to c., if You or We cancel the policy We may deduct a pro rata proportion of the premium for time on risk, reasonable administrative and transaction costs related to the acquisition and termination of the policy We incur and any Government taxes or duties We cannot recover.
- c. In the event that You have made a claim under the policy and We have agreed to pay the full sum insured for Your Vehicle no return of premium will be made for any unused portion of the premium on the Vehicle subject to the claim.

What happens after You make a claim

1. Excess

An excess is the amount shown in Your Schedule which You must pay when You make a claim under the Policy unless We state an excess does not apply. The payment of an excess helps to keep the cost of Your premium down by reducing the number of small claims.

There are different types of excess which may apply to You or the driver of Your Vehicle at the time of the claim. The excess amount(s) are stated in Your Schedule.

These are:

a. Basic excess

The basic excess is the first amount You must pay on each claim. The amount of the basic excess will be shown on Your Schedule beside the heading "Basic excess".

- You can supply the registration number of the vehicle, and
- Your Vehicle was a sedan, station wagon, four wheel drive, panel van, utility or goods carrying vehicle under two tonne gross vehicle mass, and
- The amount of the claim exceeds Your basic and age excess under the Policy and is not a claim for windscreen Damage.

e. Tipping excess

An additional excess of $1,000 will apply if Your Vehicle is a rigid body tipper or a tipping trailer and the event which gives rise to a claim occurs whilst the tipping hoist forms part of Your Vehicle and is fully or partially elevated.

Allianz can assist You in selecting a suitable repairer to repair the Damage to Your Vehicle; however You also have the right to choose Your own repairer.

In both instances We will work closely with the repairer to strive to achieve the best repair for You however We may require a second quotation from a repairer chosen by Us. We will then choose (subject to any relevant Policy limits) to:

We will not pay any amount greater than the maker's last list price in Australia (together with a reasonable charge for fitting) for the supply of any part, extra or accessory.

In the event that any part, extra or accessory cannot be obtained immediately, We may choose to pay You the value of the part, extra or accessory (together with a reasonable charge for fitting) rather than supply the part, extra or accessory.
