1. About This Document

This target market determination (TMD) seeks to offer consumers, distributors and staff with an understanding of the class of consumers for which this product has been designed, having regard to the objectives, financial situation and needs of the target market.

This document is not to be treated as a full summary of the product's terms and conditions and is not intended to provide financial advice. Consumers must refer to the Product Disclosure Statement (PDS) and any supplementary documents which outline the relevant terms and conditions under the product when making a decision about this product.

This TMD applies to the Pacific International Insurance Motor Vehicle Lease Insurance Options Policy distributed by the distributor in clause 3. ("The Product").

This TMD is effective from 5 October 2021.

2. Class Of Consumers That Fall Within This Target Market

This Product has been designed for consumers whose likely objectives, financial situation and needs are aligned with the Product's key attributes. The Product is designed for those consumers who have a novated lease on a motor vehicle under a salary sacrifice agreement, but will also provide cover when a customer's salary sacrifice arrangement ends (e.g. on change of employment) and the finance arrangement continues.

This Product has been designed to protect the customer from having financial shortfall, and/or provide a safety net to cover lease repayments in the event of involuntary unemployment, to their financier and lease provider. The purpose is also to keep the vehicle in a mechanically sound condition by additional years of warranty outside of that provided by the manufacturer.

The types of vehicles this Product is designed for are passenger vehicles (such as sedans, utilities, vans/people movers, four wheel drive vehicles), which are registered for use within Australia. The age of the vehicle will determine its eligibility for the cover options available. The age of the vehicle is determined by the manufactured built year not including the built month.

This Product is not suitable for those consumers who do not have a lease on a motor vehicle.

This Product includes 4 (four) options of cover, of which the consumer may choose as many options as they wish:

1. Total loss assist

This cover option is designed to minimise the financial loss incurred as a result of the vehicle being declared a total loss by the comprehensive vehicle insurer. It covers the shortfall after a total loss payout in respect to discharging the obligations under a financial contract.

2. Lease Protection Insurance

This cover option provides cover for lease payment obligations in the event of involuntary unemployment. It will also provide cover for the difference between the outstanding balance of a lease agreement and the fair sale price of the vehicle in the event of a defined period of involuntary unemployment if the hand-back option is taken.

The hand-back option may be exercised where we have paid 3 consecutive months of lease repayments and up until immediately before 10 months, the vehicle has been returned to the lease provider as per the lease agreement, or there has not been return to permanent gainful employment at the time the vehicle is handed back.

This cover option also has the option of an additional benefit of monthly vehicle running costs, which is payable on the 31st day after the start of the involuntary unemployment. Monthly payments will continue until the maximum amount of lease repayments has been made, or gainful employment has been found.

3. Guaranteed Buyback Insurance

This cover option provides cover at the conclusion of the lease agreement if the likely market value of the vehicle is less than the guaranteed buy back value. This ensures an element of financial security on the asset.

4. Extended Warranty Insurance

This cover options provides financial assistance due to unexpected mechanical and electrical failure, defect, or fault. Cover is provided for most parts and components covered by the original manufacturer's warranty.
